May	Heart a thon—parent council worked closely with Claire Gately to help raise funds for St Luke's to have Their own Defibrillator £1300 raised!
June	Parent Council along with Heart a thon served Tea/Coffee and home baking at Mayfield Gala
July/August	Summer Holidays—during the summer holidays our play equipment (trim trail) was erected
September	Official opening of play ground equipment Wednesday 10th September by Councillor Colin Beattie. Look out for the photo in the Advertiser

Calendar of Future Events

Our aim as a parent council for this session is to raise funds to buy more playground equipment for the upper school playground. In order for us to achieve this we have applied for another grant but we do not know as yet if we have been successful. We have therefore organised a calendar of future events. The trim trail in the lower school playground cost over £10,000 so we have as long way to go and would appreciate your support!!!

All parent council fundraising this year will help support new playground equipment.
